

Meadowland Farmers Coop shares its Success with Members!

The first week of February, Meadowland Farmers Coop allocated over $2.2 million of profits back to their members for Fiscal 2019. Of the $2.2 million over $784 thousand is being paid in cash with the rest allocated in equity ownership of Meadowland Farmers Coop. Meadowland revolves allocated equity the following ways; to estates within 30 days of Board Approval. They also revolve equity on a 20-year revolvment, which this year they will revolve local equity earned through 2000, and they revolve all earned local equity as of December 31st the year a patron reaches age 72 the following March.

The middle of February, Meadowland Farmers Coop will be sending checks totaling $358,545 for those members who have reached age 72.

Around the first of March Meadowland Farmers Coop will be sending checks totaling $723,100 for the revolvment of 2000 local equity (20-year revolvment).

Also, in March Meadowland Farmers Coop will be making the last distribution of Redwood Falls equity, that was part of the merger agreement, with those checks totaling $238,000.

Meadowland Farmers Coop will be sending over $2.2 Million Dollars Cash to their Member/Owners for their sharing of current and past profits. Real Money in these trying times.

“Meadowland Farmers Coop continues the Proud Tradition of sharing it’s success by returning its current and past profits back to our members in the form of cash! This is yet another example of the value of doing business with Meadowland Farmers Coop!” said Brian Hicks, Meadowland’s Board Chairman.
